Why do people have psychic readings?

By no means do we all believe in the existence of psychic ability, that is of course a personal choice, however even if you are a skeptic you may wonder what anyone gets out of consulting a psychic at all.

As a full time working psychic, I'm often asked 'what can a psychic reading do for me?

At the very least it is a powerful tool for gaining insight into your self, your life and relationships. It can provide answers and guidance for a wide range of questions, including, relationships, love, family, job, career, events, business and finance, giving you a clear snapshot of your life at the time of the reading. This can enable you to take a good hard look at how your life is unfolding and a chance to review if you approve of the current trend and direction that it is taking. This aspect alone may be an extremely cathartic experience.

A psychic reading may give you a very clear perspective as to where you are now, where you've come from, and where you want to be in months or years from now. Your reading can also present you with a clear road map and a compass of how to get to where you want to be in life.

Many feel that a psychic reading can assist you in avoiding some of life's pitfalls and mistakes, as well as pointing out some of the opportunities that you may have otherwise overlooked in your haste.

If a reading predicts great things, you must still make a conscious effort to continue along your current chosen path, or the prediction could very well go unfulfilled if you should suddenly deviate from your path. A reading can be thought of in many instances as a probable 'snapshot' in time, that can be altered for better or worse by our actions. If there is something that you must know in order to resolve a problem, a reading can and will reveal it to you and allow you to see things more clearly, or at the very least give you an indication of the smoothest path forward, around or through your current difficulties. You may not always hear what you want to hear when you consult a psychic- but you will definitely have to face up to your own reality and life progress when the time is taken in this manner to review your life in this way.

A psychic reading cannot solve all of anyone's problems, and is not designed to make decisions for you or take away your free will, you retain the right in life to reject any advice you receive no matter what or who the source of the advice happens to be. A reading is not a substitute for professional, medical, legal, financial advice, psychiatric care, or sound personal judgment and may not reveal the winning 'lottery numbers' or the phone number of the cute person you met at the office party and failed to grab the phone number from, change your family or turn your spouse in to a dream partner over night- but it may assist you in moving forward and getting to where you want to be, so you can enjoy a more fulfilling life and less stress now and in the future.
